President's Message

Greetings, fellow Liberals in Winnipeg South,

I trust you are all enjoying summer, now that it finally seems to have arrived. Recently, we've had some exciting events, which many of you were part of. First, we had a very exciting nomination meeting on May 26, at which Terry Duguid was acclaimed as our candidate in the next federal election. Terry gave a great speech, reminding us of why this is going to be such an important election, and how imperative it is that we replace the Harper government. The meeting room at CanadInn Fort Garry was awash in red and white, and the evening went off flawlessly, thanks to a great organizing committee headed by Ernie Gilroy and many volunteers. Then, on June 4, Winnipeg South hosted "Wonderful Wednesday" at Molgat Place, affectionately renaming it 'Whacky Wednesday'! Thanks to Bronwyn Lawton, Jacquie Field and Jean McKenzie, and the rest of the volunteers for making this a great success. We are blessed to have a superb volunteer force, and know we can count on all of you, especially when the campaign begins in earnest. I wish you and your families a wonderful and relaxing summer!
